

Serif Can Ünver

He was born in Ankara. At the age of seven, she started Suzan Altiner's class as a part-time cello student at the Istanbul University State Conservatory. In 1993, he started his cello education as a full-time student in Prof. Umit Isgorur's class at Dokuz Eylul University State Conservatory. He won the 3rd prize in the "Talented Children Music Competition" organized by Rotary Club in 1995. Last year of his education, he attended to Prof. Caglayan Unal Sumer's class. In 2003, right after his graduation, he passed the exams of the Istanbul Technical University Center for Advanced Studies in Music (MIAM) and became a full scholarship student in Reyent Bolukbasi's class. At the beginning of 2008, he started his graduate studies at Hacettepe University Ankara State Conservatory, in Assoc. Prof. Sinan Dizmen's class. Later, he continued his studies at the same school, with Assoc. Prof. Izzet Nazliaka. He won the MA program of Baskent University State Conservatory in 2009 and transferred to this school and continued his studies with Assoc. Prof. Sinan Dizmen again. In 2004, he passed the exams of Baskent University Orchestra Academic Başkent in Ankara and started to work as a cello group member. Since 2007 he is also giving graduate and undergraduate level lectures as a lecturer in the cello department of Baskent University State Conservatory. In 2020, he started his Doctorate/Proficiency in Art/PhD studies on Cello in Prof. Dr. Ozan Evrim Tunca's class, under the supervision of Assoc. Prof. Senol Aydin at Eskisehir Anadolu University State Conservatory. Şerif Can Ünver still continues his Doctorate/Proficiency in Art/PhD studies in the same school, continues his cello group membership in Orchestra Academic Baskent. He continues giving lectures in Baskent University State Conservatory.